

King and Messiah Week 30

Read Matthew 24:1-36

How does having certainty about the future change the way you act in the present?

What's the difference between unhelpful speculation and a desire to understand our future hope?

Summarize the overall point of the passage in one or two sentences.

Even if we do not know all the details of what Jesus prophecies, what's an appropriate way to respond to what he says?

What kind of life should believers expect as they await the return of Jesus?

What is the best way to avoid being deceived by a counterfeit Jesus or a counterfeit gospel?

Read Romans 12. This chapter is full of good encouragements on how to live as the church waits for Christ's return. What are two or three of the main ideas that stick out?

Response:

How should the second coming of Jesus impact our witness today?

Write a brief prayer asking for wisdom about how to live while awaiting Jesus' return.